Elections 2026-2027

Get involved on an ODA committee or the Board of Directors and make a difference for the profession! ODA committee members collaborate on events, programs and projects such as the Annual Spring Meeting and continuing education programs; they advocate for the profession and enhance membership services, component society activities, and environmental sustainability in dental practices. Volunteering is a proven way to expand your knowledge of dentistry, hone leadership skills and broaden your professional contacts.

The Call for Volunteers outlines the positions available for 2026-2027, and includes brief descriptions of the committees with openings. If you would like more information, please write to Kimberly Figueira at nominations@oda.ca

Some meet four times a year with additional ad-hoc meetings as needed, and others meet once or twice a year. There may be reading material and other preparation time needed in advance of committee meetings. If you have questions or would like more information about a committee, please contact Kimberly Figueira at nominations@oda.ca.

Typically, committee and Board meetings are held at the ODA offices unless otherwise stated. Travel and accommodation expenses are reimbursed for all volunteers based on the Guidelines for Allowable Expenses.

- The Chair of General Council manages the verbal “traffic” during General Council meetings, seeing that the meeting discussions remain focused on the issues at hand and keeping the meeting and agenda on track.

- The role ensures there are clear and open discussions on the matters at hand.
- The Vice-Chair of General Council provides support to the Chair to ensure that appropriate rules of order are followed, and to perform the duties of the Chair in the Chair’s absence.
- General Council meets twice each year. Meetings are two days in length (Friday and Saturday).

Board of Directors

- Board of Directors — Role & Responsibilities
Directors oversee the governance and stewardship of the Association. Day-to-day operations are delegated to the CEO. Core oversight areas include financial reporting and disclosure, strategic planning, risk management, CEO performance and related employment matters, as well as governance structures and practices. Directors act honestly, in good faith, and in the best interests of the ODA, exercising care, diligence, and skill in all Board matters.
- Why serve
Directors help shape the Association’s long-term direction and protect its mission on behalf of Ontario dentists and their patients.
- Board culture & conduct
We’re looking for professionalism, collaboration, and mutual respect. Directors engage in open, well-informed discussion at the table, maintain confidentiality, and support collective decisions. The President is the Association’s official spokesperson.

Directors participate in periodic peer/Board evaluations, aligning their conduct with ODA values (Excellence, Teamwork, Honesty, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Accountability, Leadership). Directors disclose conflicts of interest pursuant to bylaws and avoid situations that may impair independent judgment.

- Training & onboarding

All elected Directors complete mandatory governance training within 12 months of election (six online modules covering governance fundamentals, ethical leadership and conflict resolution, strategic oversight and risk management, and Board culture/professionalism).

- Eligibility & commitment

The Board typically meets six times per membership year (one to two days each) plus a three-day planning session in June. Directors also serve on one or more Board Committees (about four to six meetings per year, four to eight hours each) and commit time to pre-reading; additional meetings may be scheduled as needed. Directors act as liaisons to component societies, specialty sections, and special interest groups, and may represent the ODA at related events.

To ensure regional balance, no more than three Directors may be elected from any one of the eight ODA Regions. While not required, prior service on a component society executive is strongly encouraged for the grounding it provides in Association governance. Directors serve two-year terms and may stand for re-election.
