

2022 Post COVID-19 Financial Planning for Dentists: The World has Changed - Are You Ready?

A one hour strategy session with national best selling author, instructor and media commentator, Kurt Rosentreter, CPA, CA.

Join Kurt for a fast-paced review of "what's new and important" with retirement planning, real estate, tax planning, death and disability, aging parents, kids' strategies, debt management, insurance and more in the aftermath of the global pandemic. A must-watch session to position your finances for the future in Canada facing higher taxes, less government support, economic hurdles and personal challenges.

Kurt is a national course instructor on wealth management for CPA Associations across Canada, the author of seven books on finance, a past author of articles for the ODA magazine, a regular media go-to expert for financial topics, a practicing financial planner and the past co-founder of the national wealth management practice at one of Canada's big four CPA firms. Learn more about Kurt at kurtismycfo.com.