OPEN TO DENTAL STUDENTS IN ALL YEARS

The Ontario Dental Association

presents

Webinar: Is Rural Dentistry for You?

You'll have important decisions to make when you graduate from dental school. Should I apply to a specialty? Do I buy a practice or work as an associate? Where should I practice? Now's the time to start thinking of your career path and it's important for you to know all your options. The ODA can help.

On Wednesday March 30, 2022, be sure to catch our webinar, Is Rural Dentistry for You?, presented by our guest speaker Dr. Shervin Rowshani. In this open and informal session, Dr. Rowshani will tell you everything you need to know about practicing in a rural community.

Learn about:

- The economic and buy-in opportunities
- Lifestyle changes (work-life balance)
- Building a successful practice in a small town

Dr. Rowshani can also answer your questions on job interviewing, associating versus ownership, adapting to COVID-19, and more. Submit your questions ahead of time by completing this form.

Don't miss this opportunity to hear from a practicing member about the opportunities, risks and rewards of small-town dentistry. This webinar is open to all dental students from all years.

Dr. Shervin Rowshani HBSc, DDS, MBA General Practitioner

Dr. Shervin Rowshani moved to Toronto in 2001 where he attended University of Toronto for undergraduate studies. In 2010, after graduating from the U of T's Faculty of Dentistry, he began practicing dentistry in London area. In 2013, Dr. Shervin moved to Muskoka after purchasing Dairy Lane Dental, his first dental practice. In 2019, he obtained his MBA from Rotman School of Management – University of Toronto. During downtimes of COVID-19 shutdowns, he established a PPE and mask manufacturing facility in Muskoka - PPE Supply Inc. He resides in Muskoka and enjoys the outdoors and year-round active lifestyle.

CDSPI is pleased to help support the ODA's Student Programs.
